

St Francis Admonition Day 14.

That one must not be seduced by Bad Example.

Nothing should be displeasing to the servant of God, save sin. And no matter how one may sin, if the servant of God is troubled or angered—except this be through charity—they store up guilt to themselves.

The servant of God who does not trouble themselves, or get angry, about anything - lives uprightly and without sin.

Blessed is the person who keeps nothing for themselves, rendering “to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.”
