

St Francis Admonition Day 20.

Of the Humble Servant of God.

Blessed is that servant who is not more puffed up because of the good the Lord says and does through them, than because of that which God says and works through others. A person sins when they want to receive more from their neighbour, than they are themselves willing to give to the Lord God.