

St Francis Admonition Day 26.

Of True Correction.

Blessed is the servant who bears discipline, accusation, and blame from others, as patiently as if they came from themselves.

Blessed is the servant who, when reproved, mildly submits, modestly obeys, humbly confesses, and willingly satisfies.

Blessed is the servant who, when they are without fault, is not prompted to excuse themselves, but who humbly bears the shame and reproof for the sin.